AVAUNT DALTONS.

Courageous Coffeyville Citizens
Clean Them Out Completely.
Four Desperadoes and Four Citizens Dead—Emmet Dalton Fatally Wounded—Full Particulars.

The account of the Dalton raid on the Coffeyville, Kans., banks as given in yesterday's DAILY CHIEFTAIN is substantially correct. The six outlaws rode into town about 9:30 in the morning and hitching their horses in an alley, four entered the Condon bank and two the First National. At the Condon bank, Cashier Ball told them that the time lock would not open until 10 o'clock and they stated that they would wait.

Bob and Emmet Dalton were the two who took in the First National and they secured all the money in the safe. They then forced Cashier Ayers and his two assistants out of the bank, following right after them. About this time, an alarm having been given, Geo. Cubine and another party fired at the outlaws, wounding one. A return shot killed Cubine. The robbers in the Condon bank now fired through the window, wounding Ayers and his assistant, Charles Brown, and the latter died last night. Emmet and Bob then ran back through the bank and encountering Lucian Baldwin, fatally wounded him. A fight now took place in which City Marshal Connelly and four desperadoes were killed and Emmet Dalton fatally wounded and captured. Three of the robbers were killed by a liverman from the stable. The two remaining outlaws now dropped the plunder, mounted their horses and rode off, but were followed and one of them killed; pursuit of the other was continued.

The record of the fight is thus: Desperadoes killed—Bob Dalton, Grat Dalton, Tom Heady and an unidentified man; Emmet Dalton mortally wounded.

Citizens killed—Geo. Cubine, City Marshal Connelly, Charley Brown, Lucian Baldwin; seriously wounded—Thos. G. Ayers.

YESTERDAY'S ACCOUNT.

At 10 o'clock this, Wednesday morning, the Dalton gang of outlaws and train robbers made an attack upon the banks at Coffeyville, Kan., and Emmet, Grant and Bob Dalton and two others of the outfit were killed, and four captured. But this result was not accomplished without the loss of a like number of citizens of the town. Those killed were Thomas G. Ayers, cashier of the First National bank, A. D. Cubine, the well known shoemaker, a man named Amos, another named Connelly, and one whose name was not given. Mr. Cubine's brother is now in this city attending the fair and a message was received announcing what had happened and calling him home.

This winds up the Dalton gang of outlaws most effectually, but it is certainly to be regretted that it was only done at such a cost of human life. The presumption is that the robbery was a failure, as there could be scarcely any of the outfit left to carry off the booty.

IMPORTANT MASS MEETING.

A meeting of citizens of this nation was held last night in this city, and preliminary steps taken to consider the various questions affecting the Cherokee people, including the ratification of the Strip agreement, the payment of monies accruing therefrom, monopoly, wire fences, taxation, allotment, and the advisability of sending a delegate to congress. On resolution a committee was appointed and a meeting called for October 6th (to-night) at Judge Mason's court room. All interested are cordially invited to attend; remember the time—to-night at 8 o'clock.

The secretary of the Interior states that a schedule will be made of all freedmen who were left off the Wallace roll but have been recognized, and placed in the hands of Agent Bennett for payment this month.

GREATEST OF ALL!

More People Yesterday than Ever.

The Hall fills up with Exhibits—Everybody Enthusiastic—A Successful Season all Round.

[During the present week THE CHIEFTAIN has, with the aid of the substantial and generous merchants of the city been enabled to issue a free daily and this paper is made up largely from matter printed therein.]
From Tuesday's Daily.

The Eleventh Annual Exhibition of the Vinita Fair Association began to-day and lasts until Thursday night. Up to a few days ago it was feared that the Fair this year would not be as good as upon former occasions, owing to a number of causes. But this morning all doubts are dispelled as to whether we are to have a successful Fair or not. The exhibition begins prosperously. With sun and sky in its favor, but the dust is against our comfort and pleasure at least, if it does not prevent many from attending. Prof. Hicks has arranged and located all the animals for the week end of us, and with the beautiful moonlight nights we ought to be content. Each day the fair will have separate attractions and new features. It should be understood that this is not Vinita's Fair, but will be aided by all the people in the adjacent country. In behalf of Vinita THE CHIEFTAIN says WELCOME, and is "at home" to all who may come.

From Wednesday's Daily.
The fair is now in full blast; the gate receipts yesterday were slightly less than they were for the corresponding day last year, but this was not unexpected. To-day the crowd is all that could be anticipated. While the entries of running horses are very satisfactory there seems to be a shortage of farm stock. The exhibits in Floral Hall are not so numerous as they were last year, but are of fair quality.

TO DAY'S PROGRAM.
Entries in three-eighths mile race, free to all—Sleepy John by Lee Jackson; Orphan Girl by Wm. Michler; Cherokee Bob by Geo. Ward; Brown Dick by A. Banning.
A trotting race for a purse by the association.
Mile dash—John Ireland by Teece Chambers; Maud Winters by J. D. Kelly; Brown Dick by A. Banning; Alice Drenning by Joe Drenning; Daybreak by Jos. Lewis.

YESTERDAY'S RACES.
One-half mile dash, free-for-all—Theo. Kelley's Button, 1st; Marks' Rocky, 2nd.
One-half mile and repeat, free-for-all—Buckton, Kelley's, 1st; Whitelock, 2nd—Michler Bros.
One-half mile dash for two-year-olds—Joe Shelby, 1st; Deck, 2nd.
Trotting race for stallions—Geo. Perry, 1st; Bolle, 2nd—Athy, Columbus.
A saddle horse race was run between Bob Tittle's gray horse and a bay belonging to Geo. Mayes, the latter winning.

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY.

THE DAILY CHIEFTAIN congratulates the Vinita Fair Association, the people and the town on the success which has been attained by the eleventh annual fair. Treasurer Green reported last night the greatest sale of admission tickets in the history of the association.

The races were all that could be desired in this line, the people were cheerful and good natured and the balloon ascension and parachute jump were the best ever seen.

To-day there is reason to anticipate like favorable results.

YESTERDAY'S PROGRAM.

Mile dash—Maud Winters, 1st; Alex. Drenning, 2nd.
Three-eighths mile—Orphan Girl, 1st; Brown Dick, 2nd.
Trotting race, two in three—Geo. Perry, 1st; Ouida, 2nd.

GENERAL FAIR NOTES.

Director Scott Audrain is present. Assistant Secretary Chamberlin is a rustler.

Arthur Chamberlin is ticket seller, as usual.

Mr. Matney has a creditable display of grain, etc.

Treasurer Green goes home to Afton each evening.

James Buchanan of Long Prairie is attending the fair.

Sam Burns has built a new stand on the grounds.
The people in and around Vinita know how to patronize a fair.
Exhibits are still coming in this morning in nearly all classes.
Clint Hall has on exhibition about forty varieties of apples.
Hardin is getting about as much fun out of the fair as any man in town.

Michler Bros., of Carthage, have entered four good horses for the races.
J. F. Standford, photographer, of Muskogee, was the first man to place his exhibit.

John Smith, of Chelsea, has a stand beneath the east end of the amphitheatre.

A few special premiums offered by the business men of the town would be entirely in order.

The woman's department this year is in competent hands, and is attracting a warm interest.

Charley Williams drove a fine looking conveyance over from the Neosho river country Tuesday.

It is mighty common to hear a man say he has better stock at home than anything on the ground. Ike McDonald, "Jim Pat" Thompson and "Doc" Bridgman are assisting the ladies at the hall.

The races run on the Vinita track are, generally speaking, as fair as can be found in the country. Bagby & Son, nurserymen of New Haven, Mo., have a lot of nice trees on exhibition at the hall.
Mr. Wolfe has on exhibition some very fine specimens of rocking chairs, made at the orphanage.

THE DAILY CHIEFTAIN made a decided "hit"—goodness added to popular prices (free) works wonders.

Clem Rogers, J. T. Gunter and Wm. Little are in charge of the speed ring and are giving satisfaction.

Don't forget that there are other features besides the races that are worthy of the attention of all visitors.

The reputation of our fair for impartial dealing and general courtesy to visitors is being verified this year.

W. H. Curtis, Afton's lumber dealer, is taking in the fair and is at the head of the mule and jack department.

Judge Scudder has a bushel of corn on exhibition, which he probably bought from a small boy, that is very good.

The association is denied the presence and assistance of President S. J. Thompson by reason of his being confined to the house by sickness.

A twenty-five dollar premium on the best bushel of corn and a like one on wheat, would bring an exhibit that the association would proud of.

Tom McCain shows a half dozen different kinds of corn and quite a collection of other things, including some beautiful 79 lbs. to two bushels.

A large cucumber in a bottle with a small neck is a novelty exhibited by Miss Lillie Black. How it got in the bottle is the query. It was grown in there.

Wheat raisers should look to their laurels. The man who gets first premium on wheat this year will not only have to have mighty good wheat but will stand a chance to see his crop for seed.

The Afton band, which is furnishing the music, consists of the following gentlemen: F. S. Walker, H. Whaley, Newton Whaley, Joe Brooks, leader; Chas. Stith, F. Stith, Chas. Starbuck, E. A. Warren, D. Richmond, Joe Yates, Clarence Meredith, Mead Meredith and Nate Wilson.

The McAlester democratic convention met as per call at McAlester, October 5th; over two-hundred delegates were present. No action was taken looking to the election of delegates to congress; Robt. L. Owen was elected national committeeman.

Miss SICKLES, of Chicago, is here this week in the interest of Indian exhibits at the world's fair. She will visit each of the five tribes and try to arouse an interest in the matter. It is desired by the commission that each tribe erect a building of their own and make an exhibit showing every phase of their advancement in civilization.

Will Take No Part.

The Democratic club, of Chelsea, at a meeting held last Saturday, adopted the following resolutions: WHEREAS, While we are in hearty accord with the principles of the national democratic party, and favor the election of its standard bearer to the office of president and vice president of the United States, we cannot see how we can further the interests of the party by organization here, as we have no voice in their election and being opposed to the agitation of an election for a delegate to the United States congress at this time, considering it unwise and impolitic; and being in full sympathy with the administration of the Cherokee government, we believe the letter of protest addressed by Principal Chief Harris, to the citizens of the Cherokee nation, dictated by patriotism and for the best interest of the people, therefore be it

Resolved, That we will take no part in the convention called to meet at McAlester, I. T., Oct. 5, 1892, and that a copy of this resolution be furnished the parties making the call and to the press.

M. W. COUCH, Chairman.

Thos. D. BARD, Secretary.

According to the Muldrow Register, the elements to citizenship are sure to get a fair trial as touching their status here, and of course be adapted to citizenship. That being the case why do they howl so about "confiscation" and "compromise"? If they prove to be citizens they will not be disturbed and need have no fear of being removed from the country without remuneration.

THE LAND OF SUNSHINE.

A Unique Country where the Skies are Almost Never Clouded, While the Air is Cool and Bracing Like Perpetual Spring.

As an anomalous southern resort, by reason of the fact that there one may escape summer heat no less than winter cold, New Mexico is rapidly becoming famous. Arranging throughout the entire territory 5,600 feet in altitude above the sea level, and characterized by dry air which, unlike a humid atmosphere, is incapable of communicating heat, the temperature in midsummer remains at a delightfully comfortable degree through the day, and at night becomes invariably brisk and bracing. The sunshine is almost constant, yet the most violent outdoor exertion may be undertaken without fear of distressful consequences. Sun-strokes or prostration are absolutely unknown there. It is an ideal land for a summer outing. Its climate is prescribed by reputable physicians as a specific for pulmonary complaints and the medicinal Hot Springs at Las Vegas are noted for their curative virtues. The most sumptuous hotel in the West, the Montezuma, is located at these springs. Write to Jno. J. Byrne, 723 Monardock block, Chicago, for "The Land of Sunshine," an entertaining and profusely illustrated book descriptive of this region, the most picturesque and romantic in the United States.

One She Appreciated.
"I don't think much of the adage people are forever quoting, 'do you?' asked Mr. Lingner of Miss Fendick.
"Well," replied the girl, with a glance at the clock, which indicated eleven thirty, "there is one I recall now which has a good deal of sound sense."
"What is that?"
"Early to bed and early to rise makes a man healthy, wealthy and wise."
Brooklyn Life.

She Knew.
He was telling his wife about a small game of poker in which he had lost 45 cents.
"It was the worst game I ever played," he exclaimed, still angry over it, "and I got so mad I couldn't see."
"What did you do then, dear?" she smiled sweetly, "go to bed?"—Detroit Free Press.

Theatrical Note.
Brown—How did you like Jones' new comedy?
Robinson—Well, it's an improvement on his other ones.
"Do you think so?"
"In the other one I went to sleep in the first act, but I didn't doze off until the second act of this last one."—Texas Siftings.

Her Mother Felted.
Little Mamie is sick in bed, but refuses persistently to take the prescribed pill. Her mother, however, resorted to strategy, concealing the pill in some preserved pear, and giving it to the child to eat. After awhile she asked: "Has my little dear eaten her pear?"
"All except the seed, mamma, dear."
—Texas Siftings.

He Will, Though.
"Well, Tommy," said the visitor, "how do you like your baby brother?"
"Oh, lots and lots—only I don't think he's very bright."
"Why not?"
"We've had him nearly two weeks now, and he hasn't said a word to anybody."—Boston Globe.

The Guilty Bird.
"Bessie," said Adams to his sister one day, "there's a parrot in this house."
"Really?" said Bessie.
"I'm sure of it," said Adams. "There's a little bird somewhere that tells on us, and parrots are the only kind that can talk."—Harper's Young People.

A Peculiar Dream.
He—I had a strange dream last night. I dreamt you and I were walking together in a beautiful park when you suddenly threw your arms around my neck and kissed me.
She—I hope nobody saw us.—Texas Siftings.

A Long Time, Anyhow.
Mr. Statlate (at half past eleven)—Would that I might be forever at your side.
Miss Marie—Isn't that about what it amounts to now, Mr. Statlate?—Chicago Tribune.

Hit the Hen.
Mrs. Suburb—I threw a stone at a hen, and hit it too.
Mr. Suburb—With the stone?
Mrs. Suburb—No, but my ring flew off and hit it right square.—N. Y. Weekly.
